

Marlboro Country

There's a world of flavor here. It's a stand-up kind of flavor and it's easy to get along with. Marlboro gets it from a special breed of tobaccos, blended into the one and only Richmond, Va., recipe. With the exclusive Selectrate[®] Filter, you get your flavor the way you like it—rich, yet plenty mild. Settle back and enjoy it. You get a lot to like.
